

Reciprocal Borrowing Program Brochures Available to ALI Member Libraries

The new Academic Libraries of Indiana (ALI) Reciprocal Borrowing Program brochures and membership cards are now available. The brochures and cards feature the new ALI logo and a list of all 72 participating libraries.

ALI member libraries may receive a supply of these by sending an e-mail request to Elaine S. Nelson, Interlibrary Loan Supervisor at Ball State University (ENelson@bsu.edu). Let Elaine know how many you need of each. The brochures and cards will be distributed via your Wheels delivery.

Thanks for supporting the ALI Reciprocal Borrowing Program.
