

Ball State University Libraries Sponsor the Fourth Annual Copyright Conference on April 11, 2007 in Muncie, IN at the Campus' Alumni Center

The Fourth Annual Copyright Conference sponsored by the Ball State University Libraries will be held at the Alumni Center on Wednesday, April 11, 2007. This year's Conference is entitled Digital Trek: To boldly explore copyright in teaching and learning.

The one-day, action-packed, affordably-priced Conference allows participants to hear from today's leading experts in copyright law, plus there is time for questions and answers. Nationally recognized copyright and intellectual property experts at the Conference include the following:

- Dwayne K. Buttler, J.D., Professor, University Libraries, Evelyn J. Schneider Endowed Chair for Scholarly Communications, University of Louisville
- Michelle L. Cooper, J.D., attorney in the Education Law Group at Bose McKinney & Evans LLP
- Kenneth Crews, J.D., Samuel R. Rosen II Professor in the Indiana University School of Law-Indianapolis and in the IU School of Library and Information Science
- Donna L. Ferullo, J.D., Director of the University Copyright Office at Purdue University and Associate Professor of Library Science
- Carl Johnson, Director of the University Copyright Licensing Office at Brigham Young University
- James R. Williams, J.D., attorney at DeFur Voran LLP, Ball State University's legal counsel for education law

The Digital Trek Conference will cover key issues such as the TEACH Act, vodcasting/podcasting and using iTunes University, Fair Use and its application in the classroom, face-to-face teaching issues, and more.

For the second consecutive year, the Conference offers Continuing Legal Education Credits granted by the Indiana Supreme Court's Commission for Continuing Legal Education. This year, the Conference has been approved for 5.7 CLE credits for practicing lawyers. The granting of these CLE credits is an acknowledgment of the quality of the qualifications and expertise of the Conference speakers.

Registration ($80 before March 31 and $125 after) includes lunch, morning coffee, juice, and donuts. Parking is free. Participants will receive free copies of the speakers' handouts. To register or learn more about the Conference, visit the homepage, www.bsu.edu/library/conference/copyright .
