

Indiana University Bloomington Libraries Annual Report 2005-2006 Wins Silver Medal Award in National Competition

The Indiana University Bloomington Libraries 2005-2006 Annual Report, "It's Not All Black and White," received a silver medal in a nationwide competition sponsored by the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE), the international association of professionals who advance educational institutions.

Of the 143 entries submitted, judges awarded one grand gold medal, one gold, five silver, and three bronze medals.

The print version of the annual report used bold graphics and interactive folds to demonstrate the opposing demands that libraries face today in serving students and faculty, whose needs vary by discipline, assignment, or even time of day.

Congratulations to all librarians and staff, whose collective accomplishments bring distinction to the Indiana University at Bloomington Libraries.

View the online version, www.indiana.edu/~libadmin/annual/2006/index.html.

[Submitted by Eric Bartheld, Director of Communications, Indiana University Bloomington Libraries, 05-16-2007]