

Judith L. Violette Receives Distinguished Hoosier Award

Judith L. Violette has received the Distinguished Hoosier Award issued by Indiana's Governor Mitch Daniels. This award recognizes significant contributions by individuals to Indiana that "... endear them in the hearts and minds of all Hoosiers."

The award was presented to Judith on Friday, July 18, 2008 by Indiana State Librarian Roberta L. Brooker at Judith's library on the Indiana University-Purdue University Fort Wayne campus.

Judith is Director of Library Services at the Walter E. Helmke Library and former president of the Academic Libraries of Indiana, 2006-2007.

For more information about Judith's many significant contributions to librarianship and the people of Indiana, please see www.fwdailynews.com/articles/2008/07/21/times/times_online/doc4884787fe43c9611504941.txt.

[Submitted by Arthur W. Hafner, Dean of University Libraries, Ball State University,
ALI Board Member and Vice President, 07-25-2008]