

Janet S. Fore Named Association of College and Research Libraries' Member of the Week

Janet S. Fore, Library Director of the Cushwa-Leighton Library at Saint Mary's College, Notre Dame, Indiana, was named the Association of College and Research Libraries' (ACRL) Member of the Week.

Janet has been a member of ACRL since 1985. She says that she joined the association "To be connected to and learn with colleagues across library and institutional boundaries."

Janet was a Board Member of the Academic Libraries of Indiana (ALI) 2003-2009 except for 2006-2007. She has a distinguished record of contributing her ideas and championing teamwork. Janet is an active supporter of resource sharing, integrating information literacy throughout the curriculum, and copyright issues.

To read more about Janet as ACRL Member of the Week, see David Free's "Member of the Week: Janet Fore," June 22, 2009, www.acrl.org/acrlinsider/2009/06/22/member-of-the-week-janet-fore.

[Submitted by Arthur W. Hafner, Dean of University Libraries, Ball State University, ALI Board Member and President, 07-01-2009]